Certificate of Ownership: When the Total Payments are paid in full, the contract and itemization of charges is evidence of the services and/or merchandise covered.

Guaranteed Price: This contract is for a guaranteed price. Contract Seller agrees to furnish the above described funeral merchandise and services for the exact amounts stated in the Contract, at an undetermined future date, dependent upon the death of the Beneficiary.

Deposit of Funds: Within thirty (30) days of receipt, all funds that are required to be placed in escrow will be deposited by Contract Seller with a qualified Escrow Agent per the Michigan Prepaid Funeral and Cemetery Sales Act (PA255 of 1986, as amended). No withdrawal of such deposits, or accumulated earnings thereon, shall be made except in accordance with Michigan Law.

Proceeds: In consideration of Contract Seller binding itself to provide the exact or similar and comparable services and merchandise provided for herein without regard to the actual costs and prices of said services and merchandise at the time of performance, Contract Seller shall be entitled to the entire purchase price deposited in the escrow account and interest earned or accrued thereon.

Investment of Funds: Funds held in escrow pursuant to this Contract shall be invested in accordance with Sections 7302 of the Michigan Compiled Laws, as set forth in the statutes governing pre-paid funeral contracts.

Partial Payment: If at the time of performance, Contract Buyer has not paid the full contract price, the specified services and merchandise will be performed or provided upon payment of an additional amount equal to the unpaid principal balance. Contracts may be upgraded after the death of the contract beneficiary by a person on behalf of the contract beneficiary's estate or by a person entitled to make funeral or cemetery arrangements. This does not prevent the transfer of a contract from one provider to another provider upon the request of those entitled to make funeral arrangements.

Cancellation by Contract Seller: A contract seller of a non-guaranteed price contract or a provider designated to furnish merchandise or funeral or cemetery services pursuant to a guaranteed price contract may cancel a prepaid contract only if the Contract Buyer of a guaranteed price contract is more than 90 days delinquent in making any installment payment or partial payment, or the Contract Buyer is otherwise in default as to any other obligation under the contract. Upon cancellation, the Contract Buyer shall receive a refund as determined pursuant to designated contractual amount.

Change of Address: Contract Buyer agrees to notify Contract Seller of any change of address.

Nature of Covenants: This Contract shall be valid and binding when accepted by a duly authorized representative of the Contract Seller. This instrument contains the entire agreement between Contract Seller and Contract Buyer, and cannot be modified, except by written supplement thereto. This Contract shall be binding upon the successors, assigns, beneficiaries, heirs, and legal representatives of the parties hereto.

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes you are considered a person if you are:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- a partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or

- any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulation section 301.7701-6(a) for additional information.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
